Outreach Effort

The Vetereans Administrations plans another "outreach" effort to inform widows of Civil War veterans they're entitled to a $55 monthly aid and attendance allowance if health conditions warrant.

The agency made personal contact with the widows in 1969 to determine if they needed the allowance, which is in addition to death compensation and death pension payments.

The Roanoke VA Regional Office noted that in December there were 511 Civil War beneficiaries (272 widows and 239 helpless children) on the VA rolls. There were 548 last June.

The average age of Civil War widows is 89.1 years, with 26 of them 100 years old or more. The oldest Union Army widow is 117 years old, compared to 105 for the oldest Confederate Army widow.

VA said 197 of the 272 surviving Civil War widows draw aid and attendance benefits. Of the 75 who do not, four are more than 100 years old. There are 1.2 million widows from all wars on VA compensation and pension rolls.

There are no Civil War veterans. The last Union Army veteran died in 1956 at the age of 109. The last Confederate Army veteran was 117 years old when he died in 1959.
